LITTLE SISTER'S BRAIN SHOT OUT

Shocking Tragedy Resulting From a Loaded Shotgun.

BOY KILLS SISTER.

Children Were at Home Alone When One Kills Another.

The 7-year-old daughter of Mr. James Mayton, Jr., who resides about eight miles east of the city, on the Fairview pike, was accidentally shot and killed by her little brother, aged nine years, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayton had gone for a visit to a neighbor, leaving four of their little children at home. Some one had left a shotgun at Mr. Mayton's house, and the little fellow got hold of it and was handling the weapon when it was discharged. The load entered behind one ear and came out near the other, tearing away a portion of the skull and scattering brains over the wall.

Neighbors were attracted by the screams of the children and when they arrived at the house they found the little girl dead. As quickly as possible the parents were notified of the shocking affair and they returned home at once. It is said that Mrs. Mayton is almost crazed with grief and her condition is critical.

LYNCH CARDS

To Be Passed Upon By the Postal Department.

A Washington special says: "An enterprising citizen of Hopkinsville, Ky., has had photographed in a postal card the bodies of four negroes recently swung up on a cedar tree at Russellville, and he has applied to the Postoffice Department to know if under the regulations such a postal is prohibited from going through the mails. The picture is a decidedly gruesome one, of course, and the features of two of the strangled negroes are brought out clearly on the postal. The bodies of the other two are hanging so that their faces cannot be plainly seen. The Postmaster General is expected to make a ruling on the matter in the course of a few days. So far as known now there is nothing in the law or regulations that would exactly cover the case. There is nothing obscene in the picture, and it could not be excluded on that score. It is an unheard of application, and created much comment around the department today."

The card was not gotten up in this city, but in Russellville. The citizen of Hopkinsville appealed to the Postal Department to exclude the disgraceful exhibition of lawlessness from the mails, for the public good.

NO STATE BANK

Can Establish Branches Is the Ruling

Made by Attorney General Breathitt Sustaining Secretary of State.

Frankfort Ky., Aug. 14.—In an opinion which he sent to Dr. Ben L. Bruner, secretary of state, Judge James Breathitt, attorney general, fully sustains Dr. Bruner in his ruling that no state bank, established under the laws of Kentucky, can establish branches. Just how many branches are affected by the decision is not known, even by Dr. Bruner, although he has found several.

BRING SUIT

In Federal Court Against John W. Kelly.

Mississippi Heirs Claim Non-Settlement of Estate.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 14.—Reviving a murder trial in Trigg county and involving John W. Kelly, the indicted master commissioner, and residents of Mississippi and Kentucky, a suit was filed in the Federal Court today, the style of which is Louise Willis versus John W. Kelly and J. H. Hopson. The plaintiff is a resident of Mississippi and defendants are residents of Trigg county, Kentucky, where the scene of action is laid.

In the petition of the plaintiff it is alleged that John W. Kelly was executor of the estate of Mrs. Mildred D. Johnston, who left her property to Mrs. Bessie Willis, who in turn left the property to the plaintiffs, Ralph Robert, Mildred Willis and Louise Willis.

Before Mrs. Bessie Willis died, however, Kelly was employed to defend her in a murder trial in Trigg county, where she was acquitted. Mrs. Willis was allowed two claims, one for $2,434.44 and one for $1,021.66 out of the Johnston estate. It is alleged that Kelly paid himself $1,021.66 as attorney's fees, and never accounted for the rest of the estate, but, on the contrary, asserts that he was given the claim of $2,434.44 by Mrs. Willis.

This the plaintiffs deny, and they assert that he wishes to sell the land of the estate to settle this alleged claim. They allege that he has leased the land to J. H. Hopson for three years for $2,100.

John W. Kelly was formerly Master Commissioner of Trigg county and criminal proceedings of the Commonwealth against him for misappropriating funds, called for trial there, were transferred to Paducah on the grounds that a fair trial could not be gotten in Trigg county because of night rider sympathy. The case has never been on trial.

A reunion of the Smithson family was held at the home of W. E. Adcock, south of the city, Wednesday, where Mrs. J. C. Smithson lives. All of her children were present, the first time in 35 years, that the entire family has been together. Those present were Mrs. Emma J. Adcock, Jas. A. Smithson, Thos. A. Smithson, of Oklahoma; Chas. W. Smithson, L. H. Smithson, Mrs. Mollie Turner, of Keysburg; Mrs. Mattie Bagby, of Lafayette, and Rev. John O. Smithson, of Calhoun, Ky. One grown sister and two infant brothers died many years ago. It was a happy family gathering and the venerable lady and her eight children enjoyed the day all to themselves. There are many grandchildren, but no effort was made to get them together. The family group was photographed by W. R. Bowles. The five sons are all good and substantial citizens, the youngest being a Methodist minister. The ladies are worthy daughters of their pious Christian mother.

NO INSULT

Offered to Mrs. Lindsay By Men Who Were Whipped.

Our informant, in regard to the whipping Saturday, near Pee Dee, was at fault in stating that the drunken men had used insulting language to two ladies, Mrs. Will Dockery and Mrs. Albert Lindsay. Mrs. Lindsay informs the Kentuckian that she did not see the men. The men were drunk and disorderly and were using boisterous and profane language on the highway, but some distance from Binns' Mill.

Responsible citizens are authority for the statement that they were whipped.
